APPLICABLE AUTHORITY

A. Sale is Authorized Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 363(b).

28. Section 363(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that “the trustee, after notice and a hearing, may use, sell, or lease other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate.” 11 U.S.C. § 363(b)(1). The proposed transaction represents the exercise of reasonable business judgment by the Trustee. See In re Meredith, 2005 WL 3763840 (Bankr. E.D. Va. 2005);

In re Delaware & Hudson Rwy. Co., 124 B.R. 169 (D. Del. 1991); In re Titusville County Club, 128 B.R. 396 (Bankr. W.D. Pa. 1991).

29. In determining whether a sale satisfies this business judgment standard, courts require a showing that (i) there is a sound business reason for the sale; (ii) accurate and reasonable notice of the sale has been given; (iii) the sale will yield an adequate price (i.e., one that is fair and reasonable), and (iv) the parties to the sale have acted in good faith. See, e.g., In re Tempo Tech. Corp., 202 B.R. 363, 365 (D. Del. 1996); Titusville Country Club, 128 B.R. at 399. The proposed sale of the Property satisfies this standard.

30. The Purchase Price for this Property is reasonable and reflects both the general real estate market and the particular circumstances relevant to the Property.

31. The Purchase Price for the Property is a result of negotiations between the Buyer and the Trustee and represents the highest and best price the Trustee could obtain given the current market conditions, and the condition of the Property. Moreover, because the sale remains subject to Court approval, the potential for higher and/or better offers remains. The Trustee submits that the sale of the Property pursuant to the Sales Contract is in the best interests of the estate.

B. Sale of Assets Free and Clear of Liens, Claims, Encumbrances and Other Interests is Appropriate.

32. Section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code provides, in part, that a trustee may sell property of the estate outside the ordinary course of business free and clear of any other entity's interest in such property if “such entity consents” or where there is a “bona fide dispute.” 11 U.S.C. § 363(f)(2) and (4).

33. The interests asserted in the Lis Pendens are in bona fide dispute. In addition, the Lis Pendens does not itself give rise to any claim of title superior to that of the Trustee. The litigation identified in the Lis Pendens was dismissed prior to the Petition Date. Consistent with his powers under the Bankruptcy Code, including without limitation Section 544, the Trustee's rights in the Property are superior to any party that alleges an unrecorded trust in the Property. Accordingly, this Court may sell free and clear of the interests set forth in the Lis Pendens and any other claims of Bala Jain.

34. The Trustee has affirmative representation from ABL Three LLC that it will consent to the sale pursuant to this Motion.

35. Further, the claims of the Township set forth in the Judgment are being resolved through the Settlement.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, the Trustee respectfully requests that this Court enter an order: (i) granting the Motion; (ii) authorizing the sale of the Property pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Sales Contract free and clear of the Lis Pendens, and any liens, claims and interests related thereto, with all such claims attaching to the proceeds of sale; (iii) authorizing the Trustee to reimburse RealMarkets at closing for the expenses referenced herein; (iv) authorizing the Trustee to take all necessary and reasonable actions to consummate the sale, including paying all sales costs from the proceeds of the sale of the Property at closing; and (v) granting such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

H. JASON GOLD, TRUSTEE
